

"This was a brilliant and accomplished performance by a band whose music is out of the very top drawer whom I predict will move on to bigger stages. I still can't quite get over how Stu was able to combine some incredible guitar work while singing as well as almost any frontman I have seen for a long time. A star was well and truly born."

- SOS Festival - Powerplay Magazine

"These 3 guys always give 110% and the crowd participation was amazing. Singer Stu Bailey really knows how to engage a crowd. When you see the compare for an event rocking at the side of the stage you know just how good a band is."

- Rockwich Festival - Rock Media UK

"These guys have gig etiquette to the max! They were so incredibly supportive of all of the bands playing here this weekend and the industry as a whole. Brilliant interaction and audience participation. This is an expressive, entertaining band and their set went by in a flash... a true sign of a fucking good band!"

- Ascension Festival - Down The Front Media

"What a talented group these guys are. They really do seem to have it all."

- Aonia Fest - Games Brains & Headbanging Life

"The songs are fiercely banged out and prove that these guys have what it takes to take the metal genre to the next generation."

- The Yard, Cornwall - Music News

"Totally blistering!! The fantastic job that guitarist, vocalist and front man Stu Bailey does cannot be over emphasised! This band simply gets better and better every time! 10/10 "

- St. Austell Band Club, Cornwall - Graham Bath

"Despite being at tables and socially distanced, WRD managed to create an electric atmosphere."

- The Station, Cannock - MMH

"'Salvation' had a blues rock vibe with the crowd screaming 'Stu, Stu' showing just how much the fans love him. A blistering performance from a band that has a huge future."

- KKs Steel Mill, Wolverhampton - We Bleed Music Media

"This album has all the ingredients and all the quality we've come to expect of this extraordinary band. 5/5"

- "Don't Shoot The Messenger" Album Review - Rock Media UK

"This is Album of the Year. There is nothing out there that can touch it. I dare anyone to even consider trying to change my mind."

- "Don't Shoot The Messenger" Album Review - Cyderbaby
